

COMMUNITY TREE PLANTING GUIDE

This 150 page guidebook is designed to help community organizations and volunteers through the process of organizing and implementing a successful tree planting project. It begins by assessing your planting site and concludes with long term care for your trees.

The guidebook includes reproducible worksheets to track volunteer hours, budgets, donations, and project timelines. Also included are checklists for planting day activities, a long-term maintenance calendar, sample press releases, informational websites, and a certificate of appreciation.

This in-depth Tree Trust Community Planting Guide will streamline your work and provides you with up to date information needed to complete a successful tree planting project that will be a lasting gift to your community.
